

NAEA Platform and Position Statements

NAEA Position Statements (reviewed every 3 years)

Process is managed by the Platform Working Group
 4 Vice Presidents and 6 Division Directors
Meets 4 times annually beginning in the fall using conference calling and web-based tools.

A position topic is raised by:
 NAEA Board | Delegates Assembly
 Issues Groups | State Associations
 Individual Members
Anytime (preference given to summer/fall submissions for spring Delegates Assembly review).

Draft position statements are shaped by expert authors.
Fall/Winter

Draft position statements are vetted by multiple groups including members-at-large and posted on the NAEA website for member review.
Winter

Draft position statements are discussed and presented for consensus voting at Delegates Assembly for recommendation to the Board for consideration.
Early Spring

Draft position statements are voted on by the Board of Directors. If approved they become a "position" of the Association.
Early Spring/Summer
